

December 1966

CHRISTMAS

Nineteen Hundred Sixty-Six

AMONG the finest of all attributes that we can have is that of gratitude for those endless benefactions which God has bestowed upon us of AA — those priceless gifts of rebirth: our marvellous new opportunities to live, to love and to serve God and our fellows.

MAY this Christmas season therefore bring us a depth of thankfulness and of joy exceeding all that we have known before.

Lois joins me in warmest greetings and in deepest affection in this new anniversary of the birth of the Prince of Peace.

Ever Yours,

Bill

