Bill and Lois in Europe

BILL and Lois are in Europe, visiting AA Groups. They flew over, taking off from Idlewild Airport, New York, in perfect weather the morning of May 11th. On the sides of their plane were the letters, "AA"—for American (Overseas) Airways. Guess there must be more than one meaning to some of the signs we see.

They landed in Oslo on May 12th, to be there until the 18th. On the 19th, they visited Bergen; then on to Copenhagen on the 31st. They were in Rotterdam June 1st. to 3rd. Then their schedule allowed them two weeks in Paris. They planned to visit some of the old battlefields where Bill was during the first war.

Ten days in England—ten days in Ireland—and ten days in Scotland completes their itinerary—to bring them home by the third week in July—in time for Cleveland.
