

June 1950

HEADQUARTERS HIGHLIGHTS

(The Alcoholic Foundation is, in effect, a general service board for the AA movement. It publishes the book Alcoholics Anonymous, maintains the General Service Office in New York, guarantees the financial and traditional integrity of The A.A. Grapevine, and is responsible for AA public relations at the national and international level. Address: The Alcoholic Foundation, P.O.Box 459, Grand Central Annex, New York 17, New York)

MOVING DAY AT HEADQUARTERS

ON May 1st, your AA General service Headquarters moved from the old location on Lexington Avenue to rooms 203-204 at 141 East 44th Street. The new set-up is just around the corner from where we used to be, right in the same area, and still handy to Grand Central Station—so it will be just as easy as ever for visiting firemen to drop in.

The Alcoholic Foundation and General Service Office will now have the additional space which has been badly needed for quite some time. The mailing address remains the same: P.O. Box 459, Grand Central Annex, New York 17, N.Y. Same telephone number too: MUrray Hill 7-6523.

The Editorial Offices of The A.A. Grapevine will also be at 141 East 44th Street—room 205. Mailing address of the Grapevine, both Editorial and Business, remains Box 85, Knickerbocker Station, New York 2, N.Y.

All AAs everywhere are cordially invited to come in and look over the new working quarters of General Service Headquarters and the Grapevine.