The Big Book

From Wellington, New Zealand:

Somehow it strikes me as being such an absolute miracle that the Big Book was written in 1939 when nobody knew anything about alcoholism or anything about Alcoholics Anonymous; when no one knew whether this was going to work. We find this paragraph in the chapter, A Vision for You. "Some day we hope that every alcoholic who journeys will find the Fellowship of AA at his destination." I have been traveling all over the world and every place I have been there has been an AA group at the end of my journey.
