AA Celebrates Bill's 34th October 5 in New York City

The place for all swinging AAs to be on Saturday night, October 5, this year is the main ballroom of the New York Hilton Hotel, 53rd Street and Avenue of the Americas, at 7 PM for the thirty-fourth AA anniversary of co-founder Bill W.

Every year New York Intergroup sponsors the dinner-dance celebration of Bill's AA birthday. Proceeds go to support Intergroup's work of carrying the message in the giant city and its suburbs. Tickets are $12.50 per person; seats at the best tables go to those who order earliest. Intergroup suggests that you join with AA friends and book whole tables (ten seats to a table), so that your party can be together at the dinner. Write: Dinner Committee, AA Intergroup, 337 East 33rd Street, New York, N. Y. 10016.

After dinner, there is to be a typical AA meeting. As is the tradition, Bill will be the final speaker of the evening. Ask your friends who have heard him talk; it will be an unforgettable experience.

Following the AA meeting, tables are cleared, the band strikes up, and those with enough go-go dance until 1 AM to the music of a band that plays recognizable music.

If dancing is not your thing, an AA "workshop" may be. This is an innovation. Don't miss it. Also at the Hilton, at 2 Saturday afternoon, the workshop will have seats for 800; Bill will be there to speak; questions and answers will fly thick and fast.

Come early, stay late; make the day a red-letter one. Bill's Big 34th Birthday. October 5, 1968. Write for tickets today!
