

December 1956

Christmas Greetings

FROM LOIS AND BILL

COURTESY OF THE METROPOLITAN MUSEUM OF ART

WE OF AA MAKE MUCH OF CHRISTMAS, AND WE SHOULD. What fellowship of men and women has in these times' received more blessings than we? Who has a greater opportunity to give—to give of the grace that surely has been ours? And who could more treasure peace than we who once knew only conflict?

Such are the gifts that we possess—ours to have and to share, the gifts of the Prince of Peace Himself.

Lois and I send you our hope of the best that Christmas can bring—for this wonderful season, and for all the months of the New Year to come.

Bill