

February 1978

In Memoriam

Paula C., longtime managing editor of the Grapevine, passed away at her home in Southbury, Connecticut, on December 12, 1977.

In the fourteen years that Paula was associated with the Grapevine, our magazine nearly tripled its circulation. Her skill, devotion, and dedication contributed greatly to that growth. She will be remembered most of all for her thousands of letters bringing hope and inspiration to our correspondents over those years. She was a dedicated AA, and her devotion to the Grapevine will never be forgotten.